Subject: Happy Birthday in Heaven

Today I am remembering my little Shih Tzu, Danni (aka: Daniel Wesley Kahora), who, I'm sure, is wildly celebrating his 27th birthday in Heaven. Danni was a special boy, gentle and sensitive. He had many health problems over his lifetime. The good thing was Danni never knew it. Or maybe he did, but just knew how to enjoy life despite them. The attached photo is Danni on vacation with us after going through major surgery just days before. He still put on his vacation threads, and sat handsomely for a photo op. I always called him my Angel Boy, long before he gained his angel wings. At age 15+ he was "Pet of the Month" at VCA Delaware Valley Veterinary Hospital, and "Pet of the Week" on NJ 12's The Pet Stop. He was truly a gentle soul with a zest for life, who loved everyone despite their flaws. He taught me some powerful lessons, and I am forever grateful that he came to share his life with me. Happy Birthday "Dan the Man" from Mommy and Daddy. Miss you so much.

Please remember the unique gifts your "babies" gave you as a tribute to them, and to our Danni.

Thank you,
Donna
